

COMMON THREADS

boutique consignment

CURRENT CONSIGNOR CONTRACT

- Consignment period is for 45 days and you will receive 50% of the selling price.
- If you want your items returned at the end of the 45 day consignment period, it is the consignor's responsibility to call or email and request a pull on or before your end date. Your items will be pulled the Monday following your end date (we do pulls Mondays when the store is closed) and will be available the following Tuesday for two weeks. If they are not picked up within two weeks they will be donated. Consignors who request multiple pulls and fail to pick up their items will no longer be offered this service. If a consignor does not call or email and request a pull their items will be donated.

.....(please initial)

- Prices are set at the discretion of Common Threads, unless specifically negotiated.
- Common Threads reserves the right to discount items to facilitate a sale.
- All consignment must be cleaned prior to drop-off. Items should be free of all stains, holes and pet hair.
- During the steaming process, if Common Threads finds any damaged, stained or dirty items, we reserve the right to donate those specific items.
- Consignor verifies that he/she has been the rightful owner of consigned items.
- Common Threads is not responsible for fire, theft or damage to any items.
- Consignors may collect any money in their account at any time or they can use the money in their account for a 10% discount off their entire purchase. However, if there is no money in their account at the time of purchase, no discount will be offered.
- Consignors forfeit any monies in their account to Common Threads after 6 months.
- A small handling fee to cover the costs of returning unsold items will be added to the cost of each item. This fee will not impact the amount of money a consignor receives upon sale of each item.
- If a consignor chooses to break the consignment contract before the end of the 45 days, they will be charged a 10% of value fee
